Saskatchewan Apprenticeship and Trade Certification Commission

Apprenticeship and Trade Certification 2012 Written Examination Schedule

Eligibility

All tradespeople must verify "Full Time" in their trade before being allowed to write a Journeyperson examination. "Full Time" is outlined in the regulations governing each trade.

Examinations will only be administered to those who have received a "final notice" letter from the Saskatchewan Apprenticeship and Trade Certification Commission to attend the examination at a given place and date. Such notice will be mailed to those who have met the following conditions:

- First time applicants submit a Form 7 and a fee of $480. Second and subsequent applications should be made on a Form 2 with a fee of $100 for written exams and $160 for practical exams.
- The request must be accompanied by Verification of Trade Experience (Form 6A), confirming "Full Time" (If "Full Time" was previously established, the Form 6A's are not required.)
- The request must be delivered or mailed to: Saskatchewan Apprenticeship and Trade Certification Commission, 2140 Hamilton Street, Regina, Saskatchewan, S4P 2E3, no later than the 1st day of the month prior to the month of the desired examination date (e.g. request for February 2012 examination to be delivered or postmarked on or prior to January 1, 2012).

To be eligible for the journeyperson examination tradespeople in Carpenter, Insulator and Powerline Technician trades must:

(a) verify "Full Time" trade experience, and
(b) successfully complete prescribed upgrading training.
